III. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

7. Plaintiff respectfully asserts that this Honorable Court has jurisdiction in this case arises under federal law. 28 U.S.C. § 1331, 1334, and 1367 and 15 U.S.C. § 1681(p). Plaintiff also asserts actions under states' laws which may be brought within the supplemental jurisdiction of this Court and Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Honorable Court exercise supplemental jurisdiction over said claims. 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

8. Venue is proper in this District, because CRA Defendants and Nationstar transact business in this District. Nationstar's headquarters is located in this judicial district, a substantial part of the conduct complained of occurred in this district, and various actions made basis of Plaintiff's claims against Defendants occurred in the Northern District of Texas as further described. 28 U.S.C. § 1391.

9. Venue is further proper in this District, because CRA Defendants entered into agreements with Nationstar in this judicial district to receive credit reporting data concerning Plaintiff. Any and all requests to investigate Plaintiff's dispute(s) sent from the CRA Defendants as part of their reinvestigation was submitted to Nationstar's headquarters and investigated by the furnisher Nationstar using Nationstar's resources located at or closely connected to this judicial district. Nationstar managed Plaintiff's mortgage from this judicial district including communicating amounts owed and conducting numerous communications via phone and letter.

IV. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

10. Upon information and belief, in or around March 2014 Plaintiff secured a mortgage for her property located at 121 Porter Bend Court, Montgomery, TX 77316.

11. Sometime thereafter, Nationstar Mortgage LLC acquired Plaintiff's mortgage loan for her and assigned loan number 619164, hereinafter ("Nationstar mortgage account").

12. On March 4, 2019, Plaintiff filed for a Chapter 13 bankruptcy. A redacted copy of Plaintiff's chapter 13 bankruptcy docket report is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

13. On December 7, 2021, Plaintiff Chapter 13 payment plan was confirmed. A redacted copy of Plaintiff's Chapter 13 Payment Plan is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

14. On November 14, 2023, Plaintiff was discharged from his chapter 13 bankruptcy, and excepted from discharge Plaintiff's Nationstar Mortgage. A redacted copy of Plaintiff's Chapter 13 Bankruptcy Discharge Order is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

15. Read in concert, Sections 1322(a)(2), 1322(b)(5), and 1328(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, bar discharging home mortgage debts in a Chapter 13 Bankruptcy.

16. On October 30, 2023, Trustee for Plaintiff's Chapter 13 Bankruptcy filed a Chapter 13 Standing Trustee's Final Report and Account. A redacted copy of Plaintiff's Chapter 13 Bankruptcy Trustee's Final Report and Account is attached hereto as Exhibit D.

17. On or around December 1, 2023, Plaintiff's Chapter 13 Bankruptcy was terminated. See Exhibit A.

18. Throughout Plaintiff's Chapter 13 Bankruptcy, under direct or indirect order from the bankruptcy Trustee, timely monthly mortgage payments were made to the Nationstar mortgage account.

19. To this day, Plaintiff still lives in the home and makes timely and regular mortgage payments to the now Nationstar Mortgage, has historically made timely and regular payments to Nationstar Mortgage, even after Plaintiff's bankruptcy, and plans on continuing to make timely and regular mortgage payments to the Nationstar Mortgage.

20. Sometime in April 2024, Plaintiff obtained her three-bureau credit report and noticed that the Equifax, and Trans Union credit report(s) were not accurate. A redacted copy of Plaintiff's three-bureau credit report is attached hereto as Exhibit E.

21. Within the Equifax credit report Plaintiff noticed that it reported the Nationstar mortgage account without the correct update that indicated that this secured debt was initially filed. This led to reporting this open account as closed, with a $0 balance, $0 payment amount and a last payment date of September 1, 2018. Further, Equifax neglected to provide the update that the tradeline was later discharged. The reporting is incorrect because Plaintiff complied with the terms of the chapter 13 bankruptcy plan, was successfully discharged—excepted the secured Nationstar mortgage debt from being discharged, therefore, any remarks and/or references to and/or suppression information related to Plaintiff’s chapter 13 bankruptcy should have been removed from the Nationstar Mortgage tradelines after the Bankruptcy was discharged.¹

22. Metro 2 guidelines require furnishers and CRAs to update the reporting of an account when the borrower associated to the account filed chapter 13 bankruptcy by first updating the Consumer Information Indicator (“CII”) to “D”, and then continuing to furnish the monthly payment history information with a value of “D”. Metro 2 guidelines further require furnishers and CRAs to update the reporting of an account when the borrower associated to the account is discharged from chapter 13 bankruptcy by updating the CII to “Q”. In following these simple Metro 2 guidelines, which are well regarded as the industry standards, it prevents the reporting of any late payment history during the pendency of a consumer’s chapter 13 Bankruptcy, and allows payments made by the consumer after the chapter 13 bankruptcy is discharged to be reported. Metro 2 guidelines are followed by both furnishers and CRAs.

23. Within the Trans Union credit report Plaintiff noticed that it reported the Nationstar mortgage account without the correct update that indicated that this secured debt was initially filed. This led to reporting this account with a $0 balance, a $0 payment amount and a late payment amount. Further, they neglected to provide the update that the tradeline was later discharged. The reporting is incorrect because Plaintiff complied with the terms of the chapter 13 bankruptcy plan, was successfully discharged—excepted the secured Nationstar mortgage debt from being discharged, therefore, any remarks and/or references to and/or suppression information related to Plaintiff's chapter 13 bankruptcy should have been removed from the Nationstar Mortgage tradelines after the Bankruptcy was discharged.²

24. Metro 2 guidelines require furnishers and CRAs to update the reporting of an account when the borrower associated to the account filed chapter 13 bankruptcy by first updating the Consumer Information Indicator (“CII”) to “D”, and then continuing to furnish the monthly payment history information with a value of “D”. followed by both furnishers and CRAs.

25. In or around June 2024, Plaintiff sent direct disputes to Equifax and Trans Union, and requested that the CRA Defendants investigate the reporting of the Nationstar mortgage account. Plaintiff requested that under the FCRA, CRA Defendants conduct a reasonable investigation and/or remedy the inaccuracies on Plaintiff's credit reports concerning the Nationstar mortgage account.

26. Within these dispute letters, Plaintiff described in great detail the issues and the misreporting following her bankruptcy and enclosed copies of either her bankruptcy docket report, trustee final report, and/or discharge order. Redacted copies of Plaintiff's unsigned dispute letters sent to Equifax and Trans Union, are attached hereto as Exhibits F and G respectively.

27. On July 8, 2024, Equifax received Plaintiff's dispute. A redacted copy of the Certified Mail Receipt and Proof of Delivery for Plaintiff's Equifax Dispute Letter is attached hereto as Exhibit G.

28. Upon information and belief, Equifax did not respond to Plaintiff's dispute.

29. On September 5, 2024, Plaintiff then obtained an updated copy of her three-bureau credit report and within the Equifax credit report Plaintiff noticed that the Nationstar tradeline confirmed they continued to report the same inaccuracies. A redacted copy of Plaintiff's September 5, 2024, Three-bureau Credit Report is attached hereto as Exhibit I.

30. Equifax's responses, or lack thereof, were not the result of a reasonable investigation into Plaintiff's dispute(s) and failed to remedy the inaccuracies within the Nationstar tradeline and gave no explanation as to why it failed to sufficiently update the Nationstar Mortgage tradeline when Plaintiff filed chapter 13 bankruptcy, complied with the requirements of the chapter 13 bankruptcy plan, was successfully discharged, and continued to make payments on the mortgage account because it was still open following the bankruptcy discharge.

31. Equifax's response(s) were not the result of reasonable investigations into Plaintiff's dispute(s) for they did not adequately evaluate or consider Plaintiff's information, claims, or evidence and failed to remedy the inaccuracies within the Nationstar Mortgage tradelines.

32. Plaintiff sent a very clear dispute, and yet Equifax made no changes to the disputed information, bankruptcy status, and/or account status.

33. Equifax chose to "verify" false information from an unreliable source, failed to correct the inaccurate information, and continued to publish the inaccurate information regarding Plaintiff's Nationstar account.

34. Upon the Plaintiff's request to Equifax for verification and addition regarding the Nationstar mortgage account, and in accordance with Equifax's standard procedures, Equifax did not evaluate or consider any of Plaintiff's information, claims or evidence. Importantly, Equifax failed to maintain procedures which would ensure that, if any investigation took place, it would provide Plaintiff's with a response communicating the results. Further, Equifax did not make any attempt to substantially or reasonably verify the Nationstar Mortgage account.

35. In the alternative, and in accordance with Equifax's standard procedures, Equifax failed to contact Nationstar, therefore, failed to perform any investigation at all.

36. In the alternative to the allegation that Equifax failed to contact Nationstar, it is alleged that Equifax did forward some notice of the dispute to Nationstar, and Nationstar failed to conduct a lawful investigation.

37. On July 26, 2024, Trans Union responded to Plaintiff and reported

"INVESTIGATION RESULTS - VERIFIED AS ACCURATE AND UPDATED: The disputed item(s) was verified as accurate; however, other information has also changed." A redacted copy of Trans Union's Response to Plaintiff is attached hereto as Exhibit J.

38. On September 5, 2024, Plaintiff then obtained an updated copy of her three-bureau credit report and within the Trans Union credit report Plaintiff noticed that the Nationstar tradeline confirmed they continued to report the same inaccuracies. See Exhibit I.

39. Trans Union's responses, or lack thereof, were not the result of a reasonable investigation into Plaintiff's dispute(s) and failed to remedy the inaccuracies within the Nationstar tradeline and gave no explanation as to why it failed to sufficiently update the Nationstar tradeline when Plaintiff filed chapter 13 bankruptcy, complied with the requirements of the chapter 13 bankruptcy plan, was successfully discharged, and continued to make payments on the mortgage account because it was still open following the bankruptcy discharge.

40. Plaintiff sent a very clear dispute(s), and yet Trans Union made no changes to the disputed information, bankruptcy status, and/or account status.

41. Trans Union chose to "verify" false information from an unreliable source, failed to correct the inaccurate information, and continued to publish the inaccurate information regarding Plaintiff's Nationstar account.

42. Upon the Plaintiff's request to Trans Union for verification and addition regarding the Nationstar mortgage account, and in accordance with Trans Union's standard procedures, Trans Union did not evaluate or consider any of Plaintiff's information, claims or evidence. Importantly, Trans Union failed to maintain procedures which would ensure that, if any investigation took place, it would provide Plaintiff with a response communicating the results. Further, Trans Union did not make any attempt to substantially or reasonably verify the Nationstar Mortgage account.

43. In the alternative, and in accordance with Trans Union's standard procedures, Trans Union failed to contact Nationstar, therefore, failed to perform any investigation at all.

44. In the alternative to the allegation that Trans Union failed to contact Nationstar, it is alleged that Trans Union did forward some notice of the dispute to Nationstar, and Nationstar failed to conduct a lawful investigation.

45. On July 1, 2024, Nationstar received the subject dispute letters. No further communication has been received from Nationstar relating to this matter. A redacted copy of the Certified Mail Receipt and Proof of Delivery for Plaintiff's Equifax Dispute Letter is attached hereto as Exhibit K.

V. GROUNDS FOR RELIEF

COUNT I – EQUIFAX'S VIOLATION OF THE FCRA (15 U.S.C. § 1681e(b))

46. The Plaintiff realleges and incorporates all paragraphs above as if fully set out herein.

47. Equifax violated 15 U.S.C. § 1681e(b) by failing to establish or follow reasonable procedures to assure maximum possible accuracy in the preparation of the credit reports and credit files it published and maintained concerning the Plaintiff.

48. The FCRA mandates that "[w]henver a consumer reporting agency prepares a consumer report it shall follow reasonable procedures to assure maximum possible accuracy of the information concerning the individual about whom the report relates." 15 U.S.C. § 1681e(b) (emphasis added).

tradeline, yet Equifax continued to prepare a patently false consumer report concerning Plaintiff.

50. Despite actual and implied knowledge that Plaintiff's credit reports were and are not accurate, Equifax readily provided false reports to one or more third parties, thereby misrepresenting Plaintiff, and ultimately Plaintiff's creditworthiness.

51. After Equifax knew or should have known Plaintiff's account status in relation to his bankruptcy was inaccurate, they failed to make the corrections. Further, Plaintiff did not request for the Nationstar mortgage tradeline to be deleted.

52. As a result of Equifax's conduct, action, and inaction, the Plaintiff suffered damages, including, but not limited to, denial in attempts to refinance, loss in ability to finance goods, loss of credit, loss of the ability to purchase and benefit from a credit, and suffering the mental and emotional pain, anguish, humiliation, and embarrassment of credit denials.

In the alternative, such conduct, action, and inaction, were negligent, entitling the Plaintiff to recover under 15 U.S.C. § 1681o.

reasonable procedures with which to filter and verify disputed information in the Plaintiff's credit files, and relying upon verification from a source it has reason to know is unreliable.

As a result of Equifax's conduct, action, and inaction, the Plaintiff suffered damages, including, but not limited to, loss in ability to finance goods, loss of credit, loss of the ability to purchase and benefit from a credit, and suffering the mental and emotional pain, anguish, humiliation, and embarrassment of credit denials.

63. Plaintiff furnished Trans Union the necessary documentation supporting Plaintiff's tradeline, yet Trans Union continued to prepare a patently false consumer report concerning Plaintiff.

64. Despite actual and implied knowledge that Plaintiff's credit reports were and are not accurate, Trans Union readily provided false reports to one or more third parties, thereby misrepresenting Plaintiff, and ultimately Plaintiff's creditworthiness.

65. After Trans Union knew or should have known Plaintiff's account status in relation to his bankruptcy was inaccurate, they failed to make the corrections. Further, Plaintiff did not request for the Nationstar mortgage tradeline to be deleted.

reinvestigation, failing to forward all relevant information to furnisher(s), failing to maintain reasonable procedures with which to filter and verify disputed information in the Plaintiff's credit files, and relying upon verification from a source it has reason to know is unreliable.

71. As a result of Trans Union's conduct, action, and inaction, the Plaintiff suffered damages, including, but not limited to, loss in ability to finance goods, loss of credit, loss of the ability to purchase and benefit from a credit, and suffering the mental and emotional pain, anguish, humiliation, and embarrassment of credit denials.

72. Trans Union's conduct, action, and inaction, were willful, rendering it liable for actual or statutory damages, and punitive damages in an amount to be determined by the Court pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681n. 74. The Plaintiff realleges and incorporates all paragraphs above as if fully set out herein.
